

The Overlook at Surprise Valley

O'Neill Enterprises, Inc.

Boise, Idaho

16 du/ac

1,000 - 1,400 sq. ft. plans

This 70-unit luxury condominium project is located in Surprise Valley, a unique area adjacent to the historic Oregon Trail and close to the Boise River, with abundant outdoor recreational opportunities. It has spectacular views of the Barber Pool Wildlife Conservation Area, one of the most important wildlife habitats in southern Idaho. It features Western style architecture that is rustic but elegant. Five distinctive floor plans offer one and two bedroom and one and two bath options with lofts in some upper units. The building features first floor flats as well as second floor townhouse and carriage units. Each home has a large private patio and one or two-car garage. The generous open spaces surrounding the buildings enhance the indoor / outdoor relationship.

